EFG Hermes Signs Agreement to Acquire 100% of a Jordanian Brokerage Firm

In continuation of the strategy to expand its regional presence, EFG Hermes announces that it has signed an agreement to acquire a 100% stake of Tadawol for Securities and Financial Services, one of Jordan's local brokers. EFG Hermes will pay Jordanian Dinar 3.85 million (USD 5.4 million) for the acquisition and will assume management control over the business. Operating in the Levant's largest capital market, Tadawol for Securities and Financial Services will be renamed EFG Hermes Jordan and will complement EFG Hermes' presence within the wider Levant region.

EFG Hermes may make forward looking statements, including, for example, statements about management's expectations, strategic objectives, growth opportunities and business prospects. Such forward looking statements by their nature may involve a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from those expressed or implied by these statements. Examples may include financial market volatility; actions and initiatives taken by current and potential competitors; general economic conditions; and the effect of current, pending and future legislation, regulations and regulatory actions. Furthermore, forward looking statements contained in this document that reference past trends or activities should not be taken as a representation that such trends or activities will continue. EFG Hermes does not undertake any obligation to update or revise any forward looking statements.

Accordingly, readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward looking statements, which speak only as of the date on which they are made.

This document is provided for informational purposes only. It does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy any securities or interests described within it in any jurisdiction. We strongly advise potential investors to seek financial guidance when determining whether an investment is appropriate to their needs.
